

October 2007

Greetings!

Thank you for your interest in volunteering at Red River Theatres! We believe the theater is the best venue around, unrivaled in its film offerings.

Red River Theatres was formed in 2000 around the goal of establishing an independent movie house in downtown Concord. Founding volunteers named the organization after "Red River," a classic, 1948 Western starring John Wayne, in which the lead characters undertake an epic, nearly impossible, but ultimately successful, journey.

Since its founding, Red River Theatres has kept independent film alive in the greater Concord region through film showings at the New Hampshire Technical Institute (NHTI), the Capitol Center for the Arts, the Annicchiarico and Concord City Auditorium. Too, Red River Theatres and NHTI have helped to incubate and grow the annual SNOB (Somewhat North Of Boston) Film Festival, which has attracted thousands of film-goers since 2002.

Red River Theatres is more than a movie house showing first-run art and foreign films, documentaries and independent films. The theater will host discussions with film directors and help launch New Hampshire filmmakers. Skill-based, educational programming will be available to youth and adults alike, and film will be used to stimulate discussions on salient social issues. Your generous contribution of time will help all of this to occur.

Please take a few moments to fill out the enclosed application. Should you have any questions, we can be reached at 224-4697. Again, thank you for your interest. We look forward to welcoming you to the Red River family!

Warmly,
